

“When judges see me representing my clients in court, they know I’ve already tried every other process to resolve the dispute.”

Tammy Saltzman

HELPING FAMILIES HEAL

TBS Law Pa/Choice Mediations LLC Serves Clients With Empathy And Compassion

WHETHER GUIDING CLIENTS

through the difficult process of divorce or the challenges of a residential real-estate transaction, longtime Boca Raton attorney Tammy Saltzman draws on her empathy and personal experience to find the best possible solution.

“I try to resolve the issues outside the courtroom as often as I can,” says Saltzman, who was trained in collaborative family law and is also a Florida-certified family mediator. She is the host of “Divorce Connection Network,” an Internet TV show, and has been honored with the “Most Outstanding Woman of the Year” award from the National Association of Women Lawyers.

“My goal is to help families heal by settling divorce cases with kindness and compassion rather than engaging in costly litigation that only benefits the attorneys,” Saltzman says. “When judges see me representing my clients in court, they know I’ve already tried every other process to resolve the dispute.”

Saltzman focuses her legal practice, TBS Law PA/Choice Mediations LLC on family law and mediation, as well as specialized residential real-estate services. She offers clients a free 30-minute consultation to discuss their divorce-related matters, as well as the challenges of buying or selling a home or condominium.

In real estate, Saltzman works closely with South Florida sales associates and other professionals to help sellers complete their transactions. “I try to make Realtors® look like rock stars and turn every real estate closing into celebration,” she says.

As a child of divorced parents, Saltzman learned about the emotional issues of divorce, remarriage and blended families at an early age. She later married a man with three children from a prior marriage, co-parenting with their birth mother. When she divorced six years ago, she remained close to her children and now has a good relationship with her ex-husband’s girlfriend.

“As a child, wife and parent, I have experienced the emotional turmoil and financial stresses facing my clients,” Saltzman says. “When I counsel them, it’s from a deep core of personal experience, as well as my knowledge of the law. I listen to my clients and know what it’s like to walk in their shoes.”
